At a depth of about eighty feet Zenas Hopkins last evening struck a nice flow of water at the filter basin. He will deepen the present flow and sink other wells. The permanence of the flow is still in doubt.

Last evening in Ryan's court Henry R. Hill, the proprietor of the Hampshire restaurant on Barr street, was bound over in the sum of $1,000 for attempted rape on the person of Catherine Belsed, a young girl who was employed by him. Hill is in jail.

The water pipe has been successfully and cheaply laid across the St. Mary's river at Oms street. All that is necessary now is to connect the river links with the main pipes on either side of the stream, giving the city two main supply pipes from the pumping house. The work cost about $1,000 less than was at first anticipated, owing to the favorable condition of the river.

Bluffton Times: "Mrs. W. H. Lash and Miss Lillie Lash, of Chicago; Miss Estella Wise, of Dayton, Ohio; S. C. Lumbard and wife, B. D. Angell and the Misses Estella and Mattie Angell, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Humphrey, of the Bliss House. Miss Etta Falls, a handsome Fort Wayne belle, is the guest of her friend, Miss Myrtle Justus, of this city."

The Wells County Times says: "Sheriff Scholier, of Allen county, telephoned out for a supposed horse thief. About an hour after receiving the message, the outfit described to him, by the Fort Wayne officers came into the city and he arrested the man and held the rig until Fort Wayne officers came over Monday evening. The man arrested was not the person wanted and he was permitted to journey onward."

The Ligonier Banner says: "The Fort Wayne band is taking the first steps looking toward a grand band reunion at Rome City before long. The best bands in Northern Indiana, including of course our famous organization, will be in attendance and a big time can be expected. We should think that something of this kind would be much more pleasant and instructive than those now almost worn out band contests which brood more ill feeling between musical organizations and towns than anything else. We hope to see the project carried out."

Lafayette Courier: "Miss Flora E. Weed, of Fort Wayne, has been selected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss Edna D. Baker, at Purdue University. Miss Weed comes highly recommended as a teacher of ability."

The city commissioners met yesterday and ordered Fourth street in Bloomingdale, opened from Calhoun to Clinton street. It is not probable their action will be concurred in by the council as the street opens through the north side railroad switching yards.

The bearded suit of Miss Jessie Ballou vs. James Cockburn came up in the courts yesterday at Logansport. Miss Ballou was being examined when she fainted away, and the case has been indefinitely continued. She lies in a very critical condition at her home. Her testimony is very black for Cockburn, who still holds out that he is entirely innocent. The case excites much interest on account of the heretofore unblemished character of both parties who are known to many Fort Wayne people.

Capt. Hugh M. Diehl last night received the following circular from Toledo: "Whereas, William L. Lamb, an estimable citizen at Toledo, Lucas county, Ohio, while defending his home from an attempted burglary, was brutally assassinated at an early hour on the morning of July 9, 1884, under circumstances that admit of no mitigation by a person, or persons, to be unknown; therefore, Resolved, that we, the commissioners of Lucas county, Ohio, in session assembled and by virtue of the power vested in us by sec. 918, of the Revised Statutes, hereby offer the sum of $1,000 as a reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of the aforesaid, William L. Lamb."

The diocesan school board of the Catholic diocese of Fort Wayne held a meeting in this city yesterday at the Episcopal residence on Clinton street. Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger presiding. The following members of the board were present: Rt. Rev. Monsignor Benoit, Revs. M. O'Reilly, of Valparaiso; E. P. Walters, of Lafayette, A. B. Oechtering, of Mishawaka; F. Koerting, of Sheldon; E. Koenig, J. H. Oechtering and H. Roockelman, city. Two members were absent—Rev. H. Meisner, who is in Europe, and Rev. T. E. Walsh, who is in Mexico. This board has accomplished a great deal of good in the schools of the diocese and created quite a stir in Catholic circles throughout the United States. The several gentlemen left for their homes last evening.

A St. Paul dispatch says the Grand Rapids ball club report that they are in good condition financially, but are somewhat crippled for players. Manager Cushman, of the Muskegon club, left Jones and Walsh at St. Paul when he left for Peoria. They say they do not understand the reason why. Cushman promised to remit to them, but has not. Jones says that the club owes him and other players a month's salary, although it is payable semi-monthly. It would seem that the club is on its last legs. They did not pay their board bill in full at St. Paul before they left that city. This may be the story of the Muskegon club, and it is the story of about all the clubs in the Northwestern League and the fellows who help them in adversity are entitled to some credit. No club is making money in the Northwestern League.

Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system.

Twenty-four hours is quick time in which to effect a cure of a long-standing disease. Mr. D. G. Stratton, of New London, Conn., is a living witness, however, that it is possible. He writes as follows: "I had been laid up all winter with sciatic rheumatism. Have been so bad that I could not walk, and what pain I suffered! I heard of Athlete's Plaster through a neighbor that had been cured. I sent for a bottle and took it according to directions, and in twenty-four hours I was free from pain."

DOUGHERTY-KELLY.

The Silver-Tongued Orator of the East and Tammany Hall Chieflain Secured For Library Hall Lectures Course.

The Library Hall Lecture association wishes to announce that to the public and its patrons particularly, that a very reputable lecture agency, the Central Lecture agency of Harrisburg, Pa., entered into an engagement for a lecture here by the Hon. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Library Hall course. As the time for Mr. Dougherty's lecture came around the Central Lecture agency wrote that Mr. Dougherty could not come. Upon communicating directly with Mr. Dougherty he stated that the Central Lecture agency had no authority to make any engagements for him outside of the state of Pennsylvania and he refused to come.

To obviate the awkward state of affairs Father Brammer went to Chicago and secured from Mr. Dougherty the following letter.

CHICAGO, July 9, 1884.
Reverend and Dear Sir: I cannot resist your kind entreaties and I promise, God willing, that some time in the month of December, likely along the middle, I will come to Fort Wayne and lecture for you in Library hall. Write me, say in October, to my home in Philadelphia and I will fix a date.

With the highest regard I am, reverend and dear sir, very truly yours,
DANIEL DOUGHERTY,
Fort Wayne, Ind.

This assures the public of a lecture from the distinguished Philadelphian. Holders of season tickets in the Library Hall Lecture course will take notice that their present tickets will be available for Mr. Dougherty's lecture and that the present reserved seats will be kept for them. Of course they will see the necessity of retaining their tickets.

In October the Hon. John Kelly, of New York, will lecture at Library hall. The course for 1884-5 will fetch the best owners in our land to Library hall.

WILLIAM P. BRENN, Secretary.

Letter from J. M. Smith, Clerk of Westchester County, New York, for Nine Years.
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 7, 1883.
I have for many years been troubled at times with muscular rheumatism and pleuritic pains, and have always found Alcock's Porous Plaster to be quick and efficient in affording relief.

In December last I had an attack of Pneumonia which left one of my lungs in a weak and extremely sensitive condition, accompanied at times with severe pain. The application of one plaster relieved the pain in a short time and I have worn one almost constantly ever since as a protection to the weakened lung.

I have used Alcock's Porous Plaster for myself and family for over twenty-five years, always with speedy beneficial results, and I do not hesitate to recommend them for their mild counter-irritant qualities, and for their efficiency in relieving soreness of the lungs and pains of a rheumatic or neuralgic character.
J. MALCOLM SMITH.

Be sure to obtain "Alcock's" Porous Plaster, as all others are worthless imitations.
